Dear Sirs,

Subject: Issuance of Electronic Contract notes, Statements and Communications

I/we understand that digital signed contract notes and other electronic communications is a specialized service offered by the member which is optional in nature and this document has been signed by me/us voluntarily without any coercion or force. I/we also understand that I/we have a right to terminate this document. However in such an event this facility shall be liable to be terminated. I/we agree and permit the Member to provide digitally signed contract notes through internet (web-based) at the registered email id mentioned in the KYC which belongs to me/us.

I/we shall access the contract notes/ confirmations of the trades executed on my/our behalf on the trade date electronically. I/we understand that it is my/our responsibility to review all confirmations, contract notes, statements, notices and other communications including but not limited to margin and maintenance calls, etc. All information contained therein shall be binding on me/us, if I/we do not object, either in writing or via electronic mail within 24 hours after any such documents are available to me/us.

Should I/we experience any difficulty in opening a document electronically delivered by the Member, the Member may, on receipt of intimation from the me/us in that behalf, make the required delivery by any other electronic means (e-mail, fax, electronic mail attachment, or in the form of an available download from the back-office website) or in paper based format. Failure by me/us to advise the Member of such difficulty within twenty four hours after delivery shall serve as an affirmation that I/we was/were able to receive and open the said document on the internet.

I/we agree not to receive the contract notes in paper form from the Member. Provided however that in case when the Member is not able to provide Contract Note to me/us through (web based) electronic medium due to any unforeseen problems, the Member would ensure that the contract note reaches me/us in physical form as per the time schedule stipulated in the Bye-Laws, Rules and Regulations of the Exchanges

I/we shall take all the necessary steps to ensure confidentiality and secrecy of the login name and password which secure my/our email-ID. Unless I/we lodge a complaint with the Member as to my/our inability to access the system, it would be presumed that contract notes and all have been properly delivered.

I/we agree that the Member fulfils its legal obligation to deliver to the Client any such document if sent via electronic delivery and the Member has not received any report indicating bouncing back of such electronic delivery.

I/we agree that as an alternative to the e-mail communication and/or in case of non-receipt of the digital contract note through e-mail I/we shall utilize the facility of accessing the website hosted by the Member to access the contract note.

I/we agree that in any change in the Email-ID specified above shall be communicated by me/us to the Member in writing or digitally.

I/We request you allocate a login and mail the password to me/us for accessing your website to download my contract notes and my statement

Most Important Terms and Conditions [MITC]

(For non-custodial settled trading accounts)

1. Your trading account has a “Unique Client Code” (UCC), different from your demat account number. Do not allow anyone (including your own stock broker, their representatives and dealers) to trade in your trading account on their own without taking specific instruction from you for your trades. Do not share your internet/ mobile trading login credentials with anyone else.
2. You are required to place collaterals as margins with the stock broker before you trade. The collateral can either be in the form of funds transfer into specified stock broker bank accounts or margin pledge of securities from your demat account. The bank accounts are listed on the stock broker website. Please do not transfer funds into any other account. The stock broker is not permitted to accept any cash from you.
3. The stock broker’s Risk Management Policy provides details about how the trading limits will be given to you, and the tariff sheet provides the charges that the stock broker will levy on you.
4. All securities purchased by you will be transferred to your demat account within one working day of the payout. In case of securities purchased but not fully paid by you, the transfer of the same may be subject to limited period pledge i.e. seven trading days after the pay-out (CUSPA pledge) created in favor of the stock broker. You can view your demat account balances directly at the website of the Depositories after creating a login.
5. The stock broker is obligated to deposit all funds received from you with any of the Clearing Corporations duly allocated in your name. The stock broker is further mandated to return excess funds as per applicable norms to you at the time of quarterly/ monthly settlement. You can view the amounts allocated to you directly at the website of the Clearing Corporation(s).
6. You will get a contract note from the stock broker within 24 hours of the trade.
7. You may give a one-time Demat Debit and Pledge Instruction (DDPI) authority to your stock broker for limited access to your demat account, including transferring securities, which are sold in your account for pay-in.
8. The stock broker is expected to know your financial status and monitor your accounts accordingly. Do share all financial information (e.g. income, networth, etc.) with the stock broker as and when requested for. Kindly also keep your email Id and mobile phone details with the stock broker always updated.
9. In case of disputes with the stock broker, you can raise a grievance on the dedicated investor grievance ID of the stock broker. You can also approach the stock exchanges and/or SEBI directly.
10. Any assured/guaranteed/fixed returns schemes or any other schemes of similar nature are prohibited by law. You will not have any protection/recourse from SEBI/stock exchanges for participation in such schemes.
